“ Hi Steve,
I just thought of something else about your Dad. He was quite the southern gentleman. He was a lot of fun to be around. Beth from PA

“ My heart is broken to hear of the loss of such a caring, loving, thoughtful, and wonderful man! They just don't make men like him anymore. I've had the pleasure of knowing Mr. Tubbs for the past 10 years of my career in the medical field and what an honor it has been to know him. He will be greatly missed by all that knew him, especially myself. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time.

“ Hi Steve, Just found this on my laptop. Sometimes it takes me awhile. I remember your Dad from the house you stayed at around Lewistown, PA And we were both little. And the next time, I remember your Dad, was when my Mom and Dad and Sharon and I had gone to Florida and had stopped on the way back. My parents were in one car and Sharon and I were in my car. Well, we got separated in Florida. And we stayed in Marietta, GA with them that time, and your Mom and Dad took us to the airport where you were and you took myself and Sharon, individually for an airplane ride. That was a thrill for Sharon and I both, for neither one of us had ever flown before. And we flew around Alatoona Lake. I have that spelled wrong. The next time just Sharon and I came down, and we had fun with both your Mom and Dad. They were so much fun to be around. Your Dad was a sweet man, but could be very onery. I may not have spelled that word right either. One time we spent a week down at Eatonton with your Mom and Dad, and that is when your Dad had the pontoon boat on Lake Oconee. And that was so cool. I thoroughly loved it. And to see your Dad's picture here, I will miss him dearly. He was a swell guy. He was generous, caring, loving, thoughtful, funny, and so very down to earth. I sure hope we can be friends from here on out. I have your cell phone and landline number and we are friends on FB. And I will try my best to upgrade to a better phone. Just don't know if I can handle all of those icons, and scrolling. and whatever else you have to do on them. Take care of yourself and be safe when you are flying. I might call you from time to time. Will keep you posted on how things are going up here. Love, Beth from PA Steve, Help! I don't know how to send this. LOL!
