“ I smile every time I think of Mrs. Betty. She had such a warm smile and contagious laugh that just made people glad to be near her. I loved spending time at her house as a teenager. It was always fun and I felt at home there. She was one special lady and will be missed.

“ Sending our condolences and prayers to all of Betty's family. She was a very gracious lady. My late husband, Ted Thomas, worked for Don and Betty in their pawn shop. Betty and I always shared recipes. I still use the ones she shared with me, one of the best being her Brunswick Stew. May God provide comfort to all of you and give you His strength, peace and love in the days ahead.
