“ David was my first cousin. We were the same age and grew up together sharing many adventures. David always kept me laughing with his dry wit and will be missed by all in the family.

“ I will miss David, we had many good times living on Sussex Dr. Looking back on us playing Army as kids, to going through basic training at Ft. Jackson. He was always saying something funny during our training, that caused us to have to pull kp. Lee, Brenda and Mrs. Pruett my prayers are for you and the rest of the family. May you find peace through his memories...
