“ Nancy ad family, Where do we start, after the years of so many memories of David, (Seed) Whitesides. My mind has gone back over our meeting one another, in early 70's! As Teresa Pate, and I cried, laughed, and shared stories. My heart ached for Nancy, daughters, son, and especially the grandchildren. Nancy, my fondest memory begun in April & first week of May in 78 or 79. We all together spent that week on an adventure. What fun we had! My first visit to Pears Falls! I think that was the true start of Nancy & David's love! We closed the

“ Oh there isn't enough room or one special memory of our friend David. He meant so much to us all. His laughter, his kind heart. I was always thankful for him pitching in to build our house. There is a foundation wall I can still see him laying the block for. Fuzzy hair and all. ! Our hearts are with you, Nancy and kids. May God wrap his loving comforting arms around you all. Praying for comfort. We love you always . Jack and Teresa Pate
