“ We only knew Ed for a few short years but he was a fine Christian man. I always enjoyed his comments in our Bible Study group On many occasions I had the honor of giving him the Body of Christ and I always felt such a wonderful feeling as I gave it to him. He was a really special man and he will be missed. I know that our Heavenly Father welcomed him with open arms.

“ I remember when we would offer prayers before Bible study, Ed would always offer the most moving and heartfelt prayers for our military. When I complimented him on the beauty of his prayers, he simply said "they don't come from me." He was a real gentleman. Heartfelt condolences to Joan and the rest of the Delamater family from Jane and Bill Richards
