“ Mr Dallas (Smiley as I called him) was such a sweet man. He tried many times to talk me through how to cook collard greens with no success 😞. He finally gave up and brought them to me already cooked 🍲. We will miss him so much at Embry Farm Service. Go catch up with Roy and wait patiently for the rest of us.

Along with my brother-my very best memories are spending summer vacation on JD's farm with my cousins. It was like a wonderland to me and I hold all the memories so close to my heart. I remember how early Dallas had to get up and I loved seeing how the dairy farm operation worked. .God bless the family at this time. Prayers are with you. Janet Halupa
