“ Janice was the first real friend that I encountered in Eatonton. She made me feel so special, warm and loved. She was definitely a one of a kind. I will miss her terribly. NOONE could ever fill her shoes and no one will ever take her place in my heart. Elaine.....know that you have a special place in my heart as well, right beside Janice. I love you dearly and pray God holds you tightly on difficult days. Look always to the Lord and know your precious twin sister is seated at the right hand of our heavenly father! She is home now with y'all's mom and they will be looking down upon you every day!

With much love and most sincerest condolences,

“ Jenny and I met Janice and Elaine when our mothers were in the nursing home. They are so caring and funny, and we will miss Janice. She was so sweet, funny, and I felt like I have known her all my life. She is in a better place for sure, but I am sad for Elaine.

“ Janice, only you, God and I know how much pain and suffering you went through for nearly four months. In the ER when you told me that if you didn't make it, you were good with everything ,and told me how much you loved me , gave me closure that meant the world to me. So many people never get the chance to hear that. We had a bond that only twins experience. I feel incomplete and empty right now. God had a plan and I'm realizing it now. He didn't want you to suffer anymore and for that I'm grateful. Continue to guide me from Heaven above and speak to me often. I need you and will always love you.💕

“ I had to privilege of growing up with Janice and Elaiy.ne. I guess you could say she was my first girlfriend. She was my date for the Junior/Senior Prom our Junior year. I regret that she, Elaine, and I lost contact with each other after graduation, only to reconnect a few years ago by way of Facebook. I thank God that I got to visit with her recently in the hospital. I cannot start to list all the good times we had through the years. I think all of s teenage boys, at one time or another had a crush on their mother. What a beautiful and kind lady Rest In Peace my friend, you will be missed.
