“ February 5, 2005, I walked into Lakeside Baptist Church for the very first time, along with my nephew, Ryan, my niece, Jennifer, and my granddaughter, Sabrina. Jerry was the first person to greet us with that jolly personality and great smile of his. He introduced himself and we told him our names and the grades of the children. He told me to follow him to the ladies' Sunday School class where his wife, Charlotte, was the teacher. He said he would get the children to their classes for me. From that day on, he and Charlotte, along with Stan and Jane Shepard, were loved by my family and played a big part in our spiritual lives. Jerry was determined that he was going to get my husband, Terry, to go to church! He and Stan would drop by our welding shop and just visit with Terry like old friends and Terry would look forward to those visits. Eventually, he agreed to go. That was a big turning point in Terry's spiritual life and he never stopped going after that day. Jerry will always be loved by our family we are going to miss him dearly. We know that we will see him again when we reach that heavenly shore. We love you, Jerry! Terry and Vicki Aaron and Family

Coach raines was a very good man had a little bit of interaction with him in high school he actually called me pulling the fire alarm but that's a different story. I always liked his demeanor and we just seem to kind of get along really well they don't make them like this no more my deepest condolences to all the family and friends. Godspeed coach. 🙏
