“ I’ve known Mark since I was 15 years old, you always made me smile, no matter what, he put a smile on my face. Always follow your cheer and a beautiful smile. He told me one night when hanging out at his house. I could have a dollar bill that he handed me but then he tore it in half. he said to write on it. This is a dollar bill. I wish I had the other half. He said never let it go .?now every time I open up my drawer and see it in there. I smile..or cry

“ I had only met Mark a couple of times with Marcus. But through Kim I knew what a wonder father and grandfather he was.
To Marcus: Having recently gone thru this same thing losing my best friend there are no words to help you feel better. Time will help and remember that it would not hurt so bad if you had not loved him so much.

God led you to read this.
See Proverbs 19:21
If it's God's will, it will be and nothing will stop it. God has a plan and it's good for you. Don't let overthinking steal your peace. Just trust Him, and let it go. God will fix that situation you're stressing about. One day you'll look back and realize He was working the whole time. If you still trust God, put Himself to the test. Amen.

“ Uncle Mark words cant express how I feel right now you wasn't suppose 2 go yet omg I dont know what to feel right now ... u just buried ur sister 30 days before ur passing and now u I luv u and u will always be remembered , missed , and loved rip bubbauntil we meet again
....

My prayers are with this family as they grieve the loss of their beloved Mr. Jessie Mark Rainey. I had the privilege of meeting him last year when Marcus and his dad came to pick my zero turn lawnmower to service it. They were such a good team! God bless each of you!
