“ John Hall- you will be missed! John was a great family man and a man of faith! John was always ready to share a fun story. It may have been a fisherman tale, a shotgun adventure or one of his life stories in the cable business. John was full of life. John, I am glad you can rest now and be proud of the legacy you have left in Paulette and Hank! ❤️

“ I knew John, for many years, thru Jim and Anne Hall, when they moved to Eatonton.
I was able to get better acquainted with John, as a good customer of mine, when I worked at BankSouth.
He was always happy and looked on the bright side of things. and extremely nice to me.
He loved his family, and was so proud of Hank and his accomplishments.
I know he will be greatly missed by all who knew him.
It was my privilege to call him "friend".
