

Johnny William Williamson Jr.

January 10, 1933 - May 24, 2025

Johnny William Williamson, Jr., age 92, passed away May 24, 2025 at his residence.

Mr. Williamson was a native of Upson County and had made his home in Putnam County for most of his life.

He was a man of many talents. He began his career working at a Body Shop, he hauled pecans to New York City in the 50's, and he owned a skating rink before moving to Putnam County. He had a long career at Rock Eagle 4-H Center for over 30 years and retired as the maintenance Supervisor.

He had a gift for working with wood and building furniture which was shared by many in Eatonton and all over Georgia. He loved sharing his home and time with family and friends. He enjoyed hunting, fishing, playing golf, gardening, collecting arrowheads and Indian artifacts.

He was preceded in death by his father, Johnny W. Williamson, Sr., his mother, Aretta Williamson, his wife of over 50 years, Sara, his grandson, Blake Carswell and his son-in-law, Bobby Goodwin.

He is Survived by his two daughters, Debbie (Bradley) Carswell, and Gena Goodwin, his granddaughter, Natalie (Buster) Holle, great grandson, Parker Blake Holle, and for the past 11 years, his treasured companion, Martha Jo Darden.

Visitation will be held Monday, May 26, 2025 from 10-11 at Williams Funeral Home in Eatonton, with graveside services immediately following at Eatonton Memorial Park.

“ Johnny was a great and true friend. He would do anything for you if he could. When I came to Georgia for a position at the Rock Eagle Environmental Education Program in 1988, we became friends. He taught me archery and even let me use his Fred Bear recurve on many deer hunts. Rick Espelage.
