“ There was a famous lyric to a song that best explains my attachment to the Hall boys.
"I get by with a little help from my friends" and I know "POP" is in a beautiful place now and has no pain. He was always there when I needed him most. And I loved him dearly. He was a True friend to me and Debby and will always be part of The Watering Hole Family

“ I will always remember Leon as a kind, loving, and happy man. He enjoyed being a part of all people's lives and enjoyed laughing with them. He got uplifted by lifting up others. He looked on the sunny side of life in all situations. To Barry, Barb, Billy, Roxanne, and the rest of your family...rest assured that Leon is in his glory and reunited with his loving wife bragging on the care and love you all provided.

“ My sweet "Pop". I never imagined, all those years ago, how much I would learn to love and depend on you. No one has ever loved my children more. All those years of your standing by me as I sat on the bleachers, watching your grandson love the game that you shared with him before he had even learned to walk. I do so love you. You taught me what having a dad, felt like....
