“ Mrs. Johnson taught me at Eatonton Grammar School in 1969-1970. She told us one time that if we behaved, she would read us a book. She believed in the old-fashioned way (a good way) of teaching. Sure enough, we behaved, and she read us the book "Queenie Peavy". This began my later love of books on tapes. Mr. Randall, Mark, Mandy and family- prayers to your family.

“ As her classmate, I remember that she was always pleasant and friendly and was quick to help others. Although my wife and I were away from Eatonton for over 40 years, when we returned, Margaret still had all those wonderful qualities and we enjoyed visiting with her and her family. “ Margaret was a dear friend. We had so much fun at her parents lake place. Nellie and Jeff always welcomed young people and were willing to feed us any time. Jeff spent hundreds of dollars on gas pulling us on skis with that big ole Kris Kraft boat. Margaret was such an upbeat positive person. I never saw her get angry or lose her patience. I'm sure those qualities made her a wonderful special Ed teacher. I will miss her, and I know Leonelle and the rest of her family will. She was a bright light, and it's hard to see her go. Rest In Peace dear one. You truly made a difference in this world. You were loved by many
