“ I will always remember Peggy for her humor and great stories. She was a cherished friend and neighbor and always ready to lend a hand to those in need. At the first sign Al or I had a cold or the flu, she and Bud were at the door with delicious homemade soup and the best cornbread ever!!! As a loyal friend, Peggy seemed to effortlessly put problems or issues in the proper perspective and always offered excellent advise. I am going to miss our talks. The last time we spoke she said she wanted to pass with dignity; Peggy, everything you ever did you did with dignity. Taken from us way too soon, both she and Bud will be forever missed.
