My heart is so heavy. Ricky was such a dear friend to me during some of my roughest times. He was a loving, compassionate, loyal and cherished friend. He had a wonderful sense of humor and wit. He could always make me laugh and he lifted my spirits every time we were together. I have hundreds of great memories of times spent with Ricky and I am very grateful that God allowed me to be his friend. He will be greatly missed. I am praying for the entire Black family.
