“ Bodean! We don't have many memories but the best one I have is when on one Winter night after a hard rain, I locked myself out of the house and had my brand new fluffy socks on that got ruined after I ran to the cabin to ask you for help. You let me in and even gave me a pair of your socks to warm my wet feet and helped me find a locksmith on your phone because mine was locked in the house still. You are a true friend and brother and I will miss you and cherish what friendship we have had here on Earth and will continue to have in Heaven. I love you and so does my family! ❤️ Until we meet again!

“ Until we meet again my friend, I know you were welcomed with open arms. Keep that million dollar smile, that twinkle in your eye, and enjoy your new adventure. Play the guitar, sing, have as many bonfires as you want, and always keep a watch over us down here. We LOVE you Bo Dean.
With all of our love,
Austin & Chelsea Durden

“ My earliest memories of Jeff are of that twinkle in his eye and that smile that had, as his sister said, that hint of mischief. I will never forget his loving heart, his kindness, and his love for others. He was one of a kind, and he will surely be missed. I'm grateful to have known him. I pray his memory is a comfort in the coming days and that you will also take comfort knowing Jeff was loved my so many people.
