His Sister in law, Debbie, also wanted to share how much she will miss him and was grateful for the time she had with him and all he did to help them. “ Always was willing to help and had a kind word. Strong man with a gentle loving soul. If you had him as a friend you truly knew what a friend was.

“ I first met Worm in 1968, he had gotten his 1959 Ford stuck on a dirt road off the Monticello hwy and I went to help pull him out. Over the next several years we became good friends.

One of my most memorable moments about him was after he returned from Vietnam and him getting cut under his left arm while fighting at the Milledgeville, Macon forks and he evidently wasn't aware the other guy was cutting him.

RIP my old friend.
